The Americana range includes our signature classic and premium American-style burger buns and hot dog rolls. Made using the traditional American sponge and dough method to give a distinctive flavour and texture (unique to Lantmännen Unibake in the UK), and baked in individual pans for consistency, they are recognised as best in class. These can be found in the smallest mobile caterers to one of the largest fast food chains in Europe. Brioche buns, deli rolls and soft baps complete the Americana range and cater for the needs of sandwich bars, coffee shops, pub chains and restaurants.
